

Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center

Dear Parents,

Thank you for your interest in sending your child/children to Gan Ami and for inquiring about the Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center Scholarship fund. We are thrilled to have your partnership in our work together to build a community that is inclusive to all, one that is founded upon the belief that our entire community grows stronger when we all participate in Jewish life.

This JCC is blessed with the ability to be shepherds of our community's JCC scholarship donations, and we take the responsibility of distributing these funds very seriously. We truly believe that when every member of the community can participate in our programs, our community becomes much more than the sum of its members.

Qualifying for Scholarships

While our scholarship is based on a sliding scale, we also take into consideration other circumstances that may affect your ability to pay for Gan Ami. You will see an opportunity to describe these circumstances listed on page 4 of the application. With Covid-19 affecting so many aspects of our lives, this has been a challenging year for many families. The more you can share, the more accurate the scholarship determination. All materials are kept in strict confidence. As with many scholarship programs, we do not have a list of requirements as we try to evaluate each individual family situation. If you are hesitant about applying for scholarship or have questions about the process please contact Samantha ZumMallen at szummallen@jccmilwaukee.org or (414) 967-8180.

Required Documents

You must submit a copy of your 2020, 1040 Federal Tax Form with a completed application. Pay stubs and W-2's will not be accepted. If you are a married couple, both parties must be listed on the return, or two separate returns must be submitted. It is very important that all areas of the application are completed, or the application will not be accepted.
