HUNGER TASK FORCE

FREE & LOCAL

The Jewish Community Pantry is supported by the Emergency Pantry Network of the Hunger Task Force, provider of free and local food.

The Jewish response to community hunger

The Jewish Community Pantry provides emergency food to individuals and families in crisis throughout the greater Milwaukee community. Connecting clients to community resources, while increasing our community's awareness of hunger's impact and working to alleviate its impact, the Pantry is our Jewish communal response to hunger in Milwaukee.

VOLUNTEER

Individuals and groups welcome

During pantry open hours

- Shopping with pantry guests to select food for their families
- Sorting food items
- Stocking shelves

Outside of pantry open hours

- Collecting donations from local organizations
- "Gleaning" remaining produce from farmer's markets and gardens

COMING THIS FALL!

Join us as we partner with local architecture firms to create amazing structures out of cans and bring awareness to food insecurity concerns in Milwaukee. All food donated to the Jewish Community Pantry, our community's response to hunger, which primarily serves the Amani and Metcalfe Park neighborhoods.
